December 6, 2025 - LOS ANGELES, CA — Changing Lives Impacting Humanity (CLIH) proudly partnered with the Family Film & TV Awards to recognize the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve Toys for Tots Program with a Special Humanitarian Award during the recent Family Film & TV Awards ceremony.

The award honored Toys for Tots' year-round commitment to supporting disadvantaged children and families, recognizing the organization's ongoing mission to deliver hope, joy, and essential support well beyond the holiday season. While widely known for its annual toy drives, Toys for Tots operates continuously throughout the year to uplift children facing hardship and to strengthen communities nationwide.

The Humanitarian Award was presented during the ceremony by Dwight Yoakam, Erik Estrada, Laura McKenzie, and Elizabeth, underscoring the entertainment industry's collective commitment to celebrating organizations that make a meaningful and lasting difference in the lives of children and families.

"Partnering with the Family Film & TV Awards to honor the Toys for Tots program reflects our shared belief in the power of service, compassion, and community," said a representative of Changing Lives Impacting Humanity. "This recognition highlights the extraordinary impact Toys for Tots continues to make throughout the year, ensuring children feel supported, valued, and remembered."

The Family Film & TV Awards, which celebrate excellence in family-friendly film and television, provided a respected platform to align entertainment with humanitarian outreach. By honoring Toys for Tots during the ceremony, the event reinforced the importance of using storytelling and public platforms to amplify charitable missions that positively impact children and families.

Changing Lives Impacting Humanity remains committed to collaborating with entertainment partners, charitable organizations, and community leaders to elevate awareness, increase visibility, and provide meaningful support to families and children in need.
